

Gabriella Stilo Will Perform the Role of Sleeping Beauty on June 15th

Hunter's Green resident Gabriella Stilo started dancing at the age of two, and currently trains at America's Ballet School in Tampa Palms six days a week. At age 13, Gabriella is making a name for herself through major dance competitions.

The American Dance Competition ("ADC") is referred to as, "Ballet's finest student competition around the Globe." In March 2013, Gabriella was the Junior ADC Grand Prix winner (scoring the highest among over 200 Junior competitors) for the second year in a row. Gabriella was awarded a cash prize and a full tuition scholarship to the Jose Carreno Dance Festival Summer intensive. She and her dance partner, Brandon Carpio, won First Place in the ensemble category with their pas de deux. They were also selected to perform in the ADC awards ceremony Gala.

The Youth America Grand Prix ("YAGP") is the world's largest student ballet competition. At the YAGP Semi-Finals in Tampa this past January, Gabriella received Second Place in the Classical Dance Category and Third Place in the Contemporary Dance Category of the Junior Division. Gabriella was one of a handful of competitors selected to perform in the YAGP's Ballet's Greatest Hits Gala at the David A. Straz, Jr. Center at the conclusion of the competition.

At the YAGP Finals in New York this past April, Gabriella advanced to the Final Round of Competition which took place at the Lincoln Center (placing in the top 25). She received dance scholarships from the Australian Ballet School, the Princess Grace Academy in Monte Carlo, and the Vienna State Opera Ballet.

On June 15th, Gabriella will dance the lead role of Aurora in the America's Ballet School performance of the Sleeping Beauty in Theatre 1 at the University of South Florida. As Gabriella will tell you, "Hard work does pay off!"
